

RUAHA NATIONAL PARK SAFARI 4DAYS

Ruaha National Park is one of the few Tanzania's greatest wilderness area where one can have a rare experience of game viewing spiced up by the interesting landscape. The park is rich of plants and animals like greater kudu, that cannot be found within the other park . The park brags her almost untouched and unexplored ecosystem, that make visitors' safari experience very unique.

The Great Ruaha River as other rivers like Mwangusi, Jongomero and Mzombe is saved because is the life line of the park. During dry season, these rivers become mostly the foremost source of water for wildlife. There are few natural springs also saving the same purpose. In the pick season, elephants obtain water from dry sand rivers using their front feet and trunks. The remaining water falls along the great Ruaha River is also important habitat for hippopotamus, fish and crocodiles.
